

Danish Society of Pathology and Cytology

Course on Hereditary Cancer

Time: 14-15 th. of November 2008

Location: Vejle Sygehus, Auditoriet

Program:

Friday November 14th.

13.00 – 13.30 p.m.: Arrival, sandwiches, soft drinks and coffee

13.30 – 14.15: M.D. Eigil Kjeldsen, Århus: Insights to the molecular basis for cancer-cell behaviour, part 1.

14.15 - 14.20: Short break and questions

14.20 - 15.05: M.D. Eigil Kjeldsen, Århus: Insights to the molecular basis for cancer-cell behaviour, part 2.

15.05 -15.30: Coffee break

15.30 -16.15: Ole Hartling, Former Head of The Danish Council of Ethics: Ethical aspects of diagnosing Hereditary Cancer

16.15 – 16.10: Short break and questions

16.10 -16.40: M.D. Inge Bernstein, Copenhagen: The Danish HNPCC register

16.40 – 17.00: Discussion, questions and concluding remarks

19.00 - ? Dinner at restaurant Trattoria Dei Re in Vejle for participants and speakers.

Saturday the 15th. of November

9.00-9.30 a.m. Arrival, coffee and rolls

9.30 – 10.15: Professor Anne Marie Gerdes, Odense: Hereditary Breast and Ovary Cancer (HBOC).

10.15 – 10.20: Short break and questions

10.20 – 11.05: M.D. Dorte Crüger, Vejle: Hereditary colorectal cancer: Diagnosis and genetic counselling

11.05 – 11.20: Coffee break

11.20 - 12.05: Professor Han van Krieken Nijmegen, The Netherlands: Lynch syndrome, the value of IHC and MSI

12.05 - 12.10: Short break and questions

12.10 – 12.55: Professor Han van Krieken, Nijmegen, The Netherlands: Lynch Syndrome, Dutch experiences and ethical considerations

12.55 – 13.00: Questions and closing remarks